

The Garden Electric Philadelphia Flower Show

One Day Tour ~ Thursday, March 9, 2023

It still may be cold outside but Spring has arrived in Philadelphia! The Philadelphia Flower Show will brighten up your March with its Garden Electric, a dazzling array of color, unique shapes and textures, and rich fragrances of gorgeous flora displays and gardens that come alive at every turn. This year's theme brings the electrifying presence of today's most dynamic designers of floral arrangements, lush gardens, and landscapes to one amazing space in which we can spend the day wandering and admiring. A special exhibit, Butterflies Live! will be part of your day, where there's a chance to come up close to both native and exotic butterflies of spectacular color in a serene garden setting. Take your time in this calming space to connect with these wondrous beauties. If you're feeling crafty, visit Artisan Row to make your own garden inspired treasure or choose a flowery crown to wear from the Bloom Bar (not included). There will be live music to dance the day away and plenty of shopping opportunities to find that perfect gift, plant or memento. Numerous food vendors will be available right at the show or take a break and walk across the street to the amazingly wonderful Reading Terminal Market for a special treat for lunch on your own. So why not break free of the winter gloom and get out and feel that spark of joy only the perfection of nature can bring. © 2022 Group Tours & Travel
